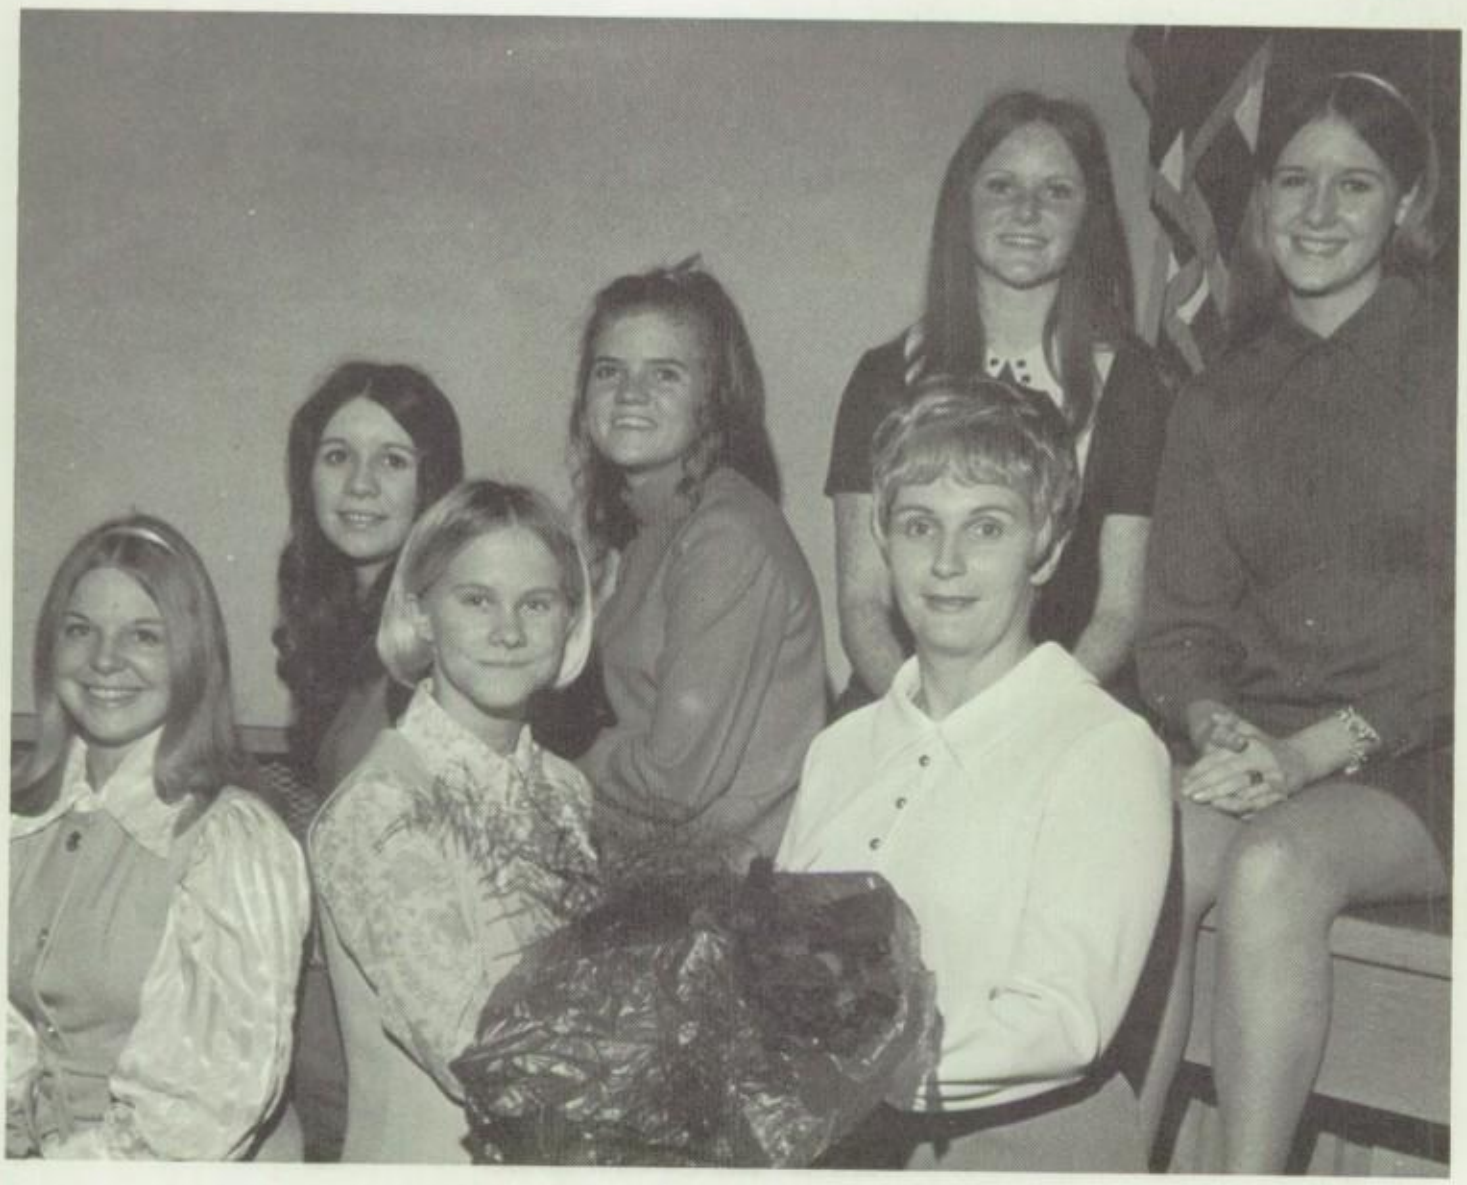
Life's Crossroads

Swiftly traveling life's busy highways our high school days go by all too quickly. There are many crossroads to be approached with caution and others to be approached with carefree abandon. Many roads or pathways influence our thoughts, ideas and generally our lives. Academic life and school activities, equally important in their contribution, develop our minds and bodies and prepare us for the crossroads of the future which we look forward to with eagerness.

The great American poet Robert Frost, expressing himself in the following lines felt that "The Road Not Taken" is as important and influential in our lives as the paths and byways travelled.



Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as
And having perhaps the better
Because it was grassy and wo
Though as for that the passin
Had worn them really about

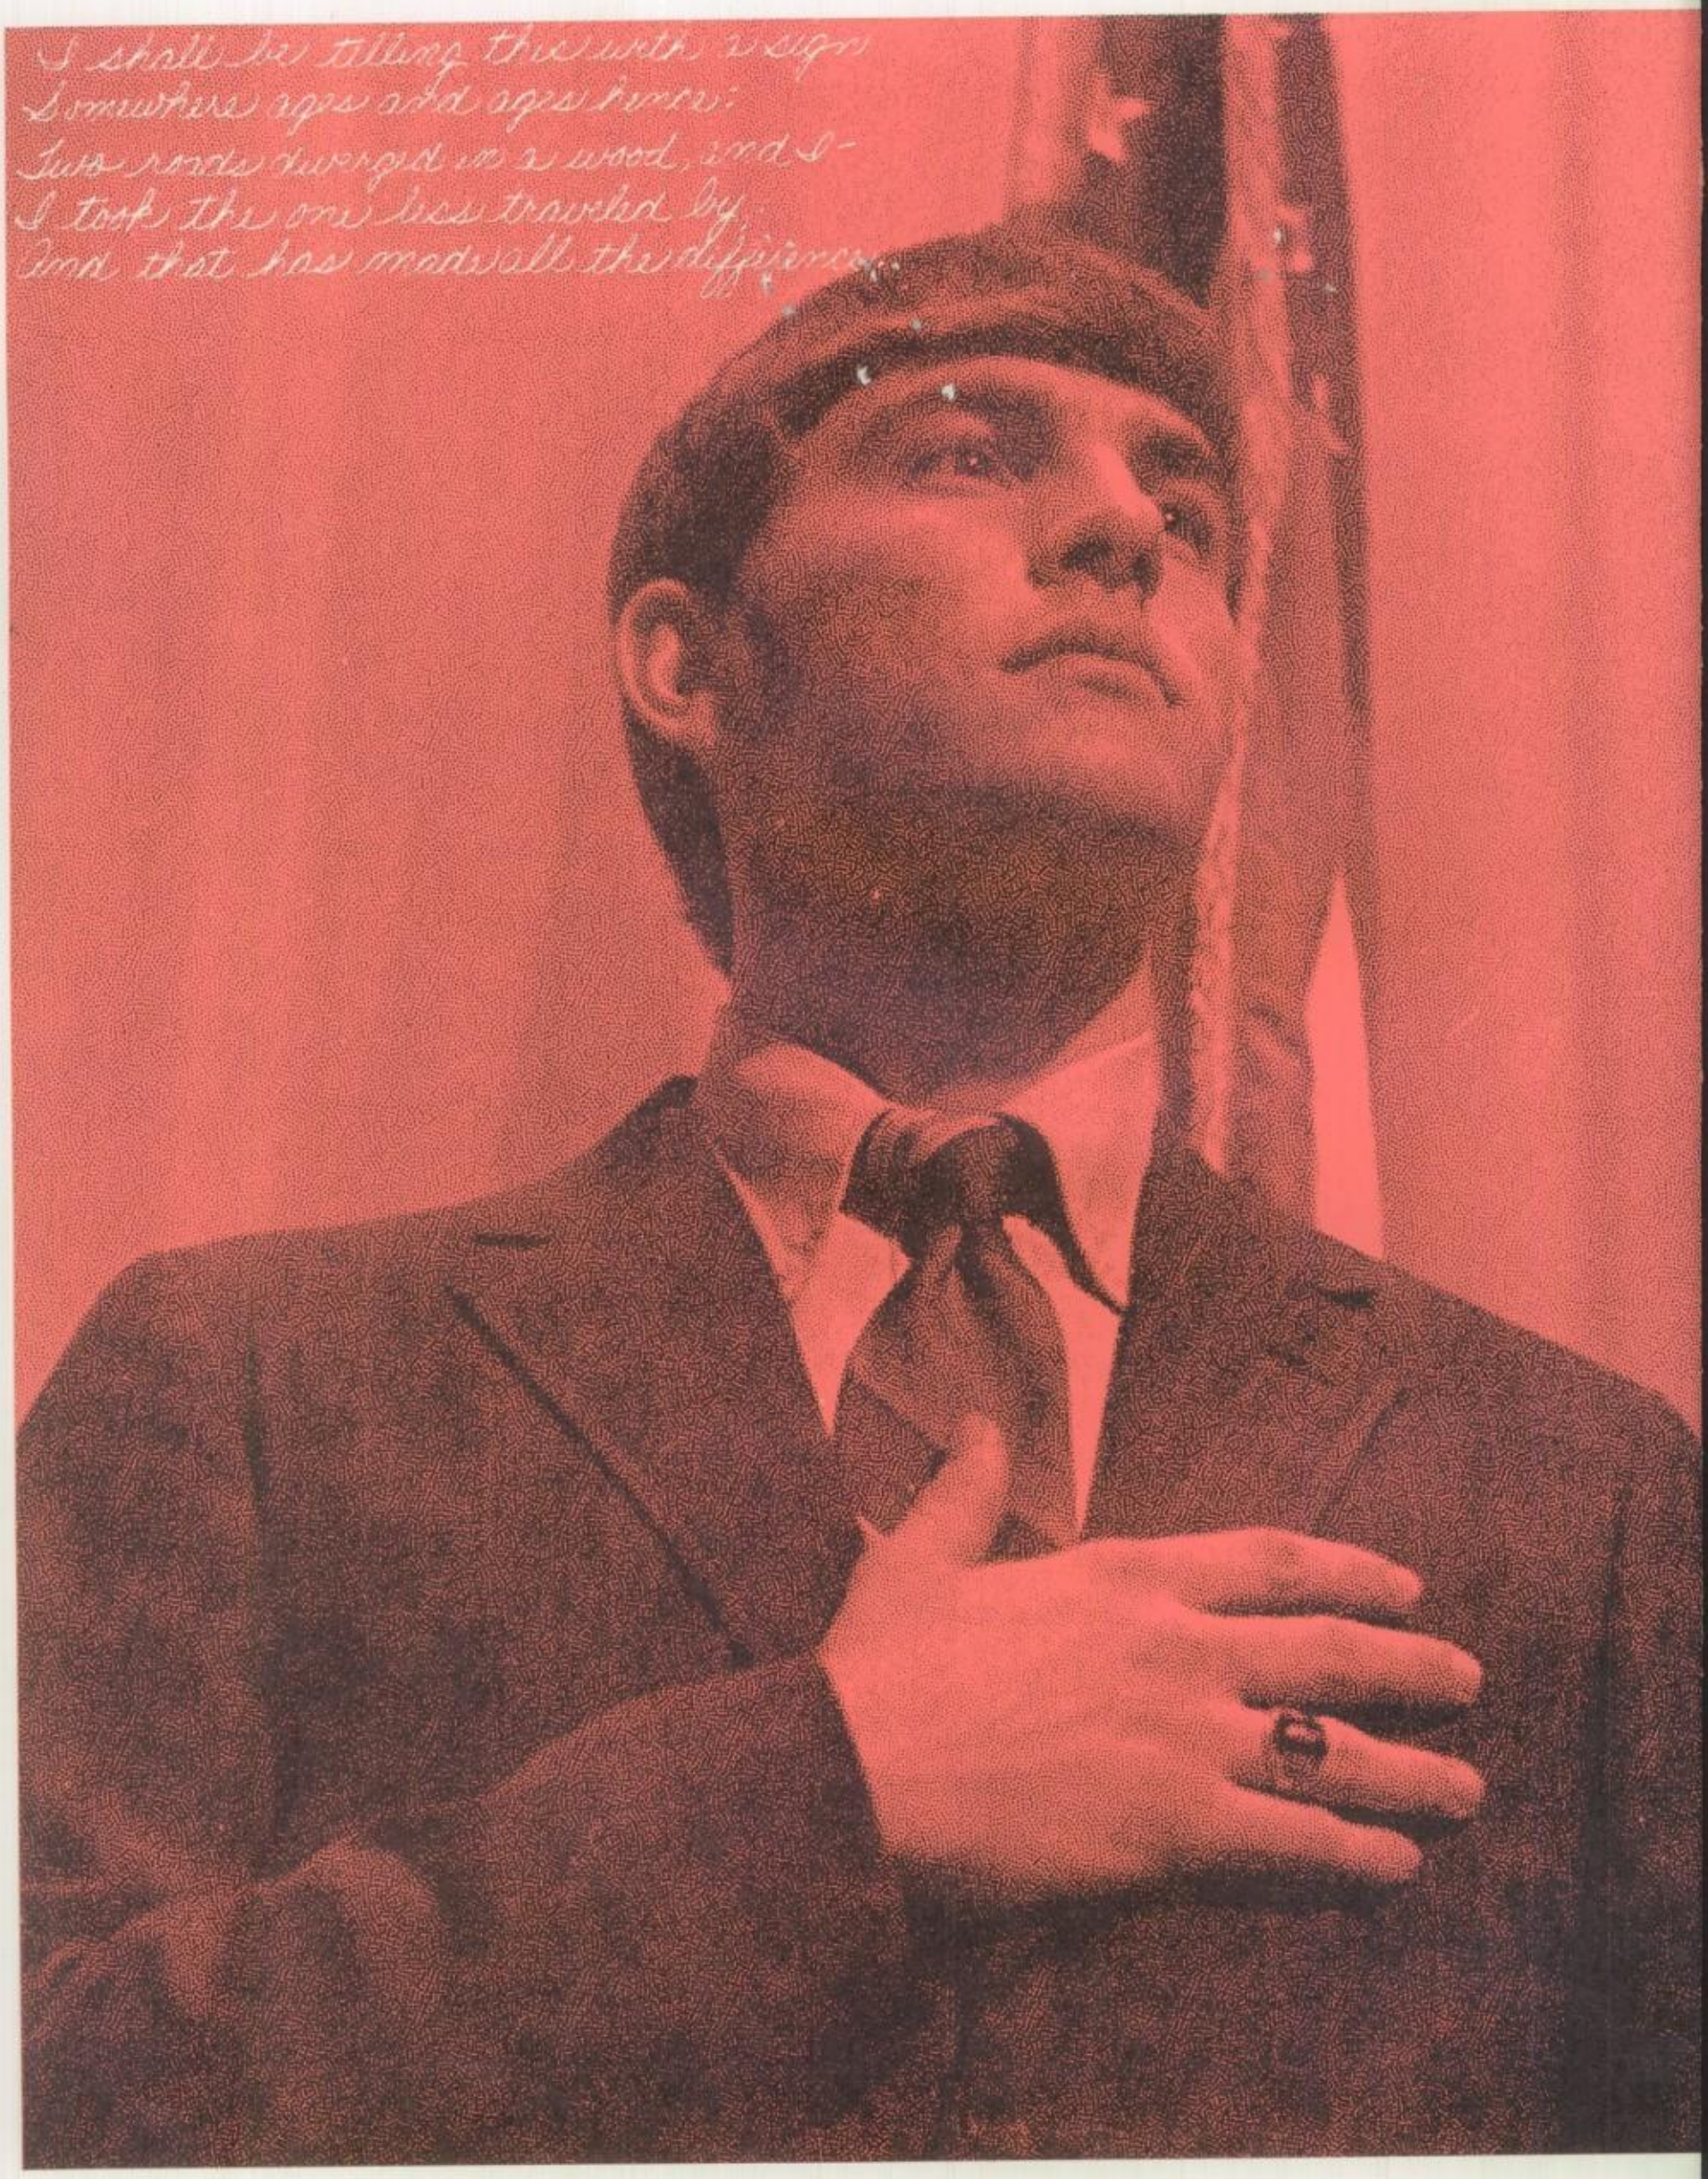
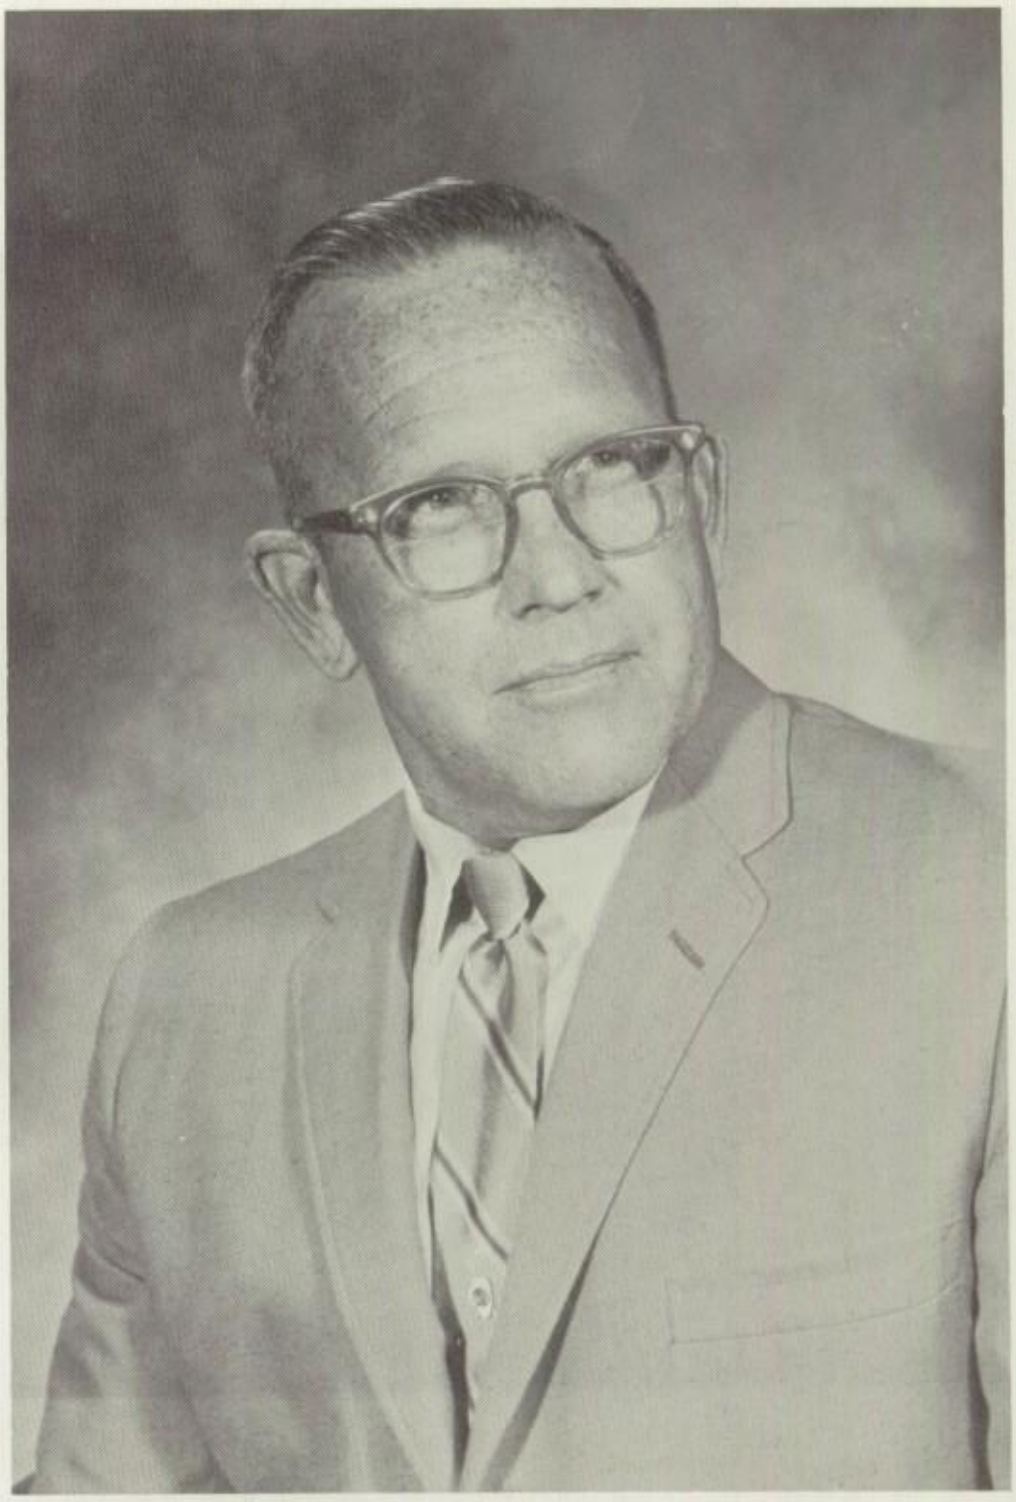
And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no steps had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!

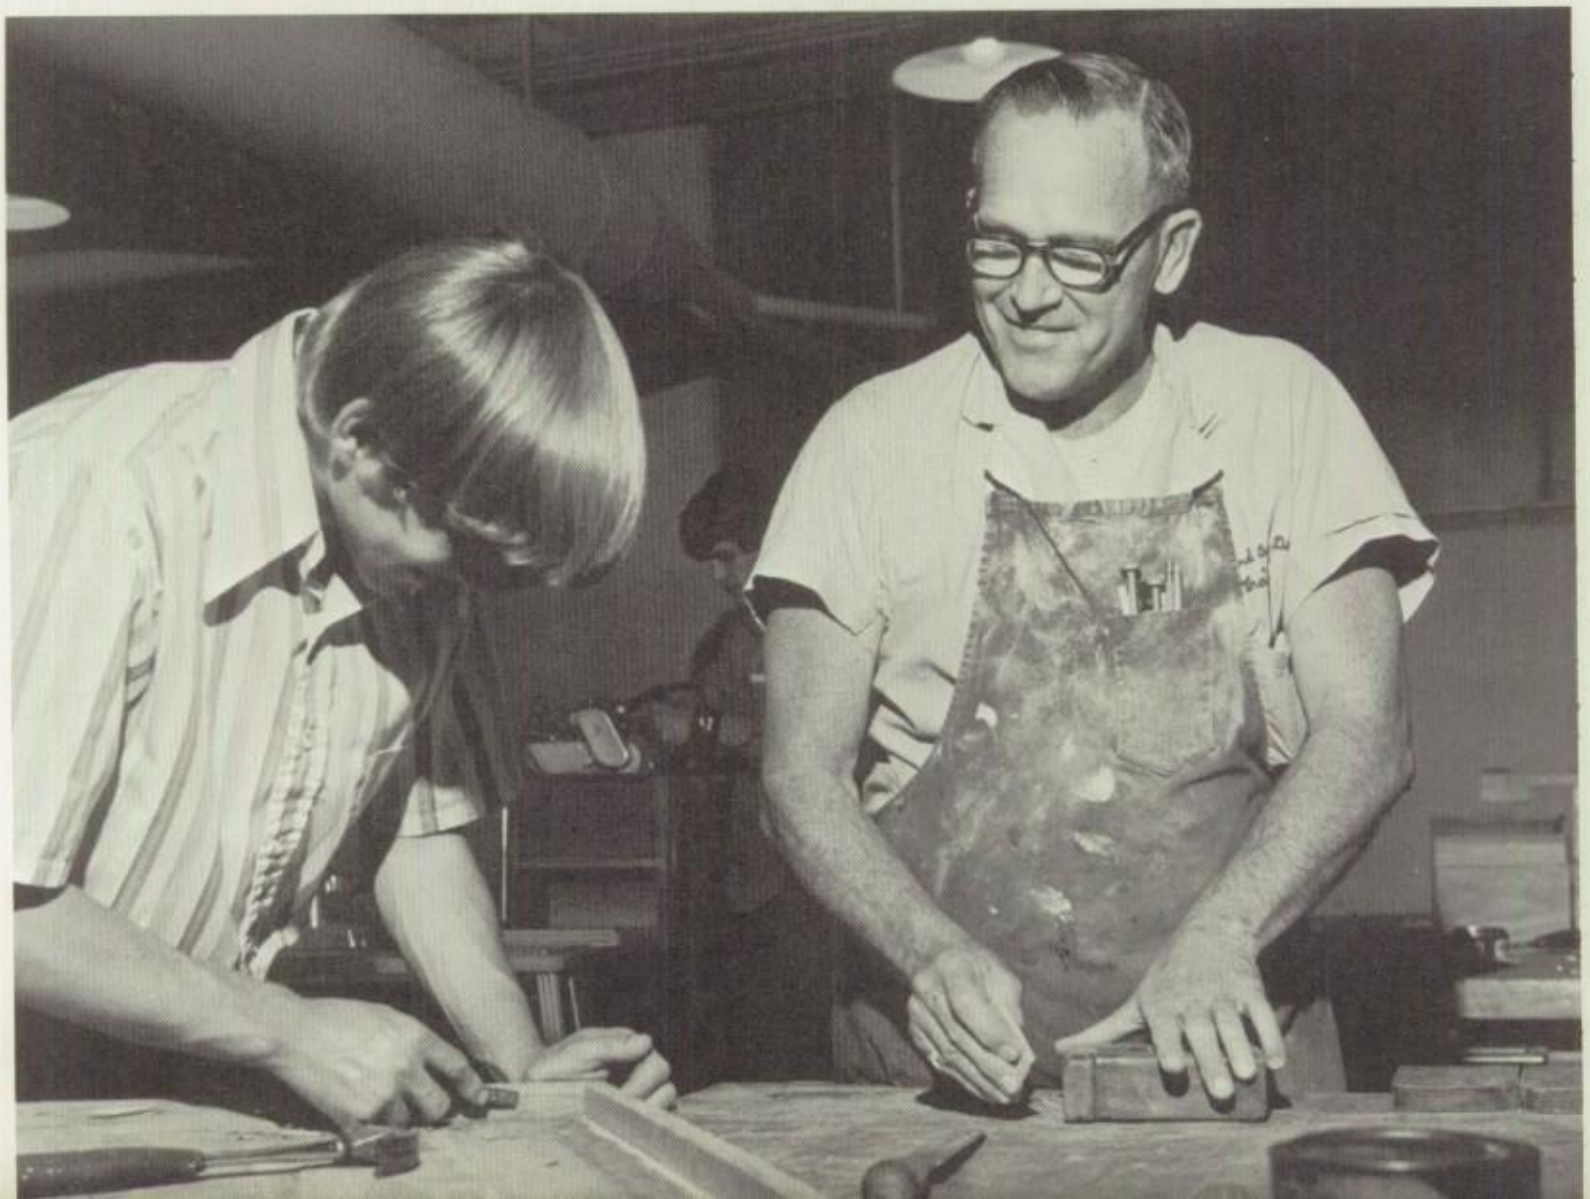
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.



I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I -
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Mr. Joe McCraith





Dedication

Mrs. Clara McCraith

In keeping with the theme of our yearbook the Amulet staff is pleased to dedicate the 1971 Amulet to two people who have taken the road together. A road shared not only in travel and perseverance in the field of education and public service, but a road also shared throughout life by the sacred tie of marriage. We have had at Limestone through the years a number of husband and wife teams who have by their loyalty given a great deal of themselves for the benefit of students and the enrichment of education. It is therefore in gratitude for their combined 31 years of service and devotion to Limestone High School that we dedicate this, our 1971 Amulet, to you, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCraith.

Homecoming, 'Americana' Viewed

Emcees Steve Holmes and Susie Weiman add that "extra touch" to the success of the Variety Show.

"Americana," this year's homecoming theme, brought out patriotism in LCHS students. On Friday the introductory assembly was held to introduce the girls nominated for queen and attendants. Senior girls Lynne Graham, Gwen Maloney, Kathy Maloney, Sue Mettam, and Tonia Monroe were nominated for queen. On the following Monday voting took place. Wednesday night at the Variety Show the queen was crowned, and her court was announced.

On Thursday night, after the second Variety Show, the varsity cheerleaders led the crowd out to the bonfire. It was then announced that the junior class won the skit competition. As the crowd cheered with enthusiasm, captain Bob Walker threw the Woodruff Warrior into the burning flames.

A 'Breakfast of Champions' was served to the varsity football team and cheerleaders on Friday morning. Friday night the Rockets slaughtered the Warriors.

The parade was held on Saturday morning at 10:00 a.m. because of bad weather the afternoon before. 'Godfrey' provided the music for the dance which brought Homecoming to a close.

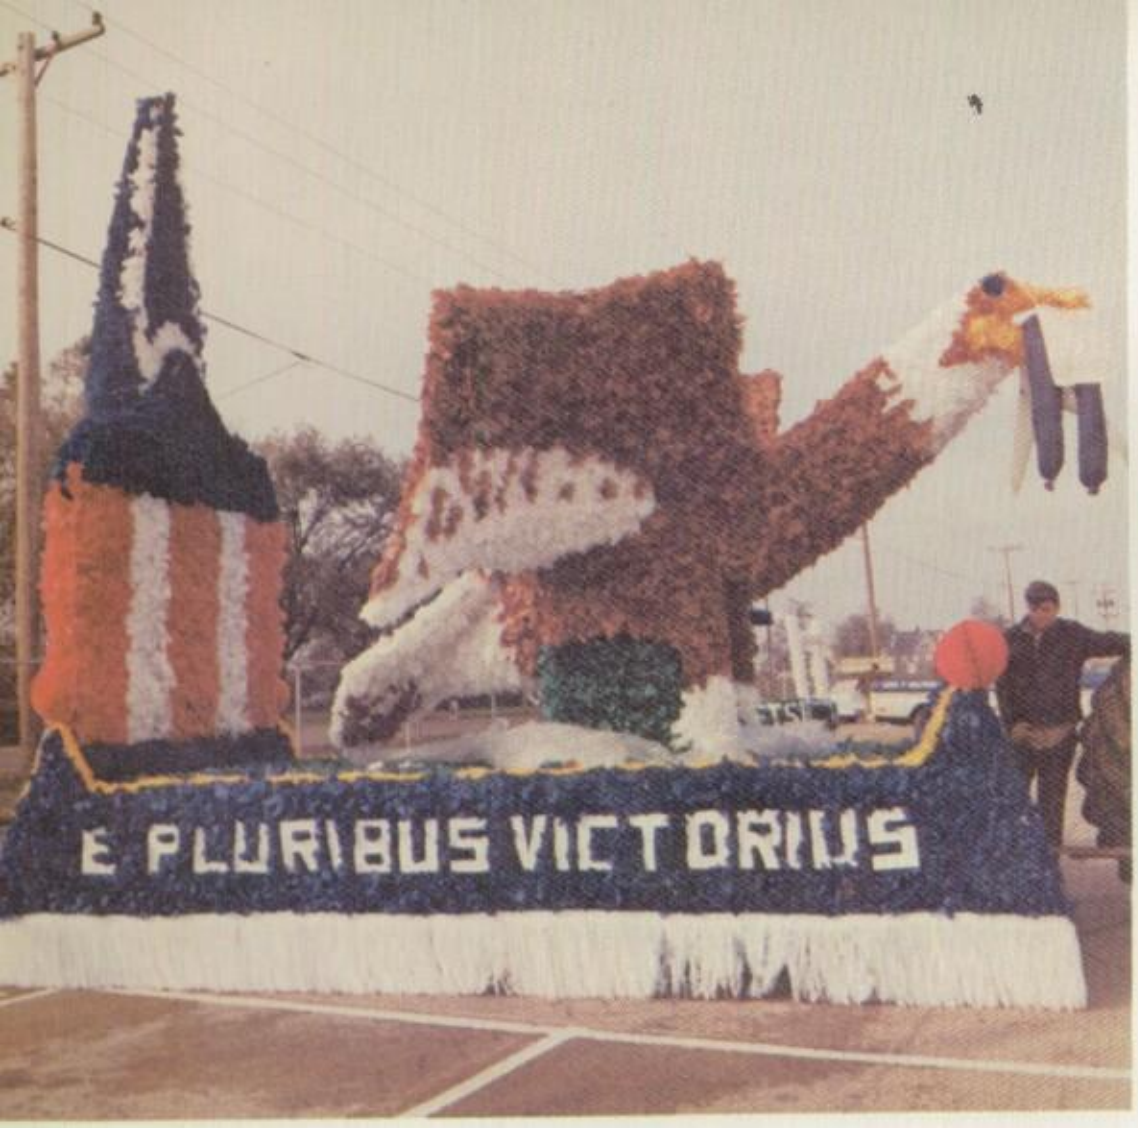
Queen Sue Mettam is ready to join the parade.

Rocket Revere and his fellow countrymen patiently await the coming of the Raiders.

For his fine performance Danny Taylor won the filler-act competition.

Is that the Warriors we hear?

It's break time back stage for the freshmen skit members.



"E Pluribus Victorius," the winning float, was constructed by the Junior Class.

Freshman efforts proved to be successful this year.

Where's "Harvey"?

On November 19 and 21 Limestone presented its Fall production of "Harvey" by Mary Chase. This zany comedy portrayed the plight of Veta Louise Simmons and her brother, Elwood, and Harvey, a six foot 1½ inch white rabbit that only Elwood could see.

Through the pressures of Myrtle Mae, Elwood is finally taken to Dr. Chumley's Rest, where he runs into Sanderson and South Kelly. After a wild chase, and the help of Judge Gaffney, strong-armed Wilson finally subdues Elwood. With the help of the maid, the cab driver, and Mrs. Chauvenet, everything ends well.

OLIVER—

Best Picture of '70

That's whose funeral? That's your funeral!

On the eves of April 1, 2, and 3, in the Limestone Community High School auditorium, the Dramatics Department presented their spring musical "Oliver". The play, directed by Mr. James Kovalik and student director Tina Wuehle, is adapted from Charles Dickens' "Oliver Twist".

The story is about a young orphan boy and his adventures in 19th century England.

Oliver is portrayed by Mike Randolph who meets the Artful Dodger, played by Danny Taylor. Dodger takes Oliver to Fagin, played by Randy Kragness, a man who runs a crime school for orphans, and his friends Nancy played by Barb K. Brown and Sue Weiman, and Bill Sikes, portrayed by Jon Kalkwarf. Through many trials and tribulations, Oliver finally finds his rightful family and Fagin changes his evil ways.

Rockets Finish Season 16-17

The Rocket varsity diamond men compiled a 15-16 season record on their way to winning the Manual District and their own regional before losing in the first game of the Canton Sectional to Quincy by a score of 3-1.

Limestone struggled all season, but the team finally got it all together for the tournaments relying on the left arm of Denny Rosenak and the right arms of Jim Priebe and Don Morton. Denny, getting wins in both district games, came back against Lewiston into the first regional game and got behind 3-0 before the Rockets powered their way to a 12-3 win. Jim Priebe came in to strike out eleven and gain the win.

In the next regional game the Rockets won a close one from Canton, 3-2, in a very thrilling game. The winning run scored on a pop fly double over second base by Randy Chiarvalle.

At the Canton Sectional with the Quincy Blue Devils, the Rockets went down to defeat 3-1.

Although nobody from Limestone made the M-S 9 all conference team, the rockets nearly had four players make it: Dan Koeppel, Don Morton, Randy Chiarvalle, and Mike Melz.

Junior Vance Stewart proves to be the best Rocket catcher.

Seniors Aim Goals High

The final crossroads in the high school career comes with the senior year. It is a time when one can look back at the tasks he has accomplished, as well as look to the future and aim his goals high.

Seniors put hard work into their homecoming skit and float, 'Do It Rockets.' Sue Mettam was chosen to reign as the 1970 Homecoming Queen. Tonia Monroe was a lovely addition to her court as Senior Attendant. Nancy Snowden and Frosty Krummel received DAR awards for their academic standings and outstanding leadership.

Class President, Bill Hammel; Vice President, Greg Bessert; Treasurer, Nancy Snowden; and Secretary, Lynn Drollinger led the class of '71 through its last and most important year at LCHS. Advisors Mr. Nordvall, Mr. Langen, Mr. Kovalik, Mr. Ingram, and Mrs. Boatright were always there when they were needed.

Second Runner-up

The judge of Limestone's 1971 "Miss Photogenic" contest was Virgil Carter, quarterback for the Cincinnati Bengals. Mr. Carter's athletic career began at Folsom High School where he was an all conference team member for three years in football, basketball, and baseball. He was also voted most valuable player for these three sports. Mr. Carter was asked to sign a pro contract out of high school for his fantastic baseball ability.

Virgil Carter entered Brigham Young University on an academic scholarship and graduated with a high grade point average. The NCAA chose Mr. Carter for the Academic All-American Football Team in 1965 and 1966. While attending BYU he majored in statistics and math and was voted Outstanding Senior of the Year. From BYU he received his Bachelor of Science Degree. Mr. Carter majored in business administration at Northwestern University.

For three years he was a member of the Chicago Bears. As starting quarterback for the Cincinnati Bengals, he directed them to their first divisional title in 1970.

Juniors Make Decisions

The junior year is a very important crossroad in the life of a student. It is the time when we begin to decide just what we want to make of ourselves—whether we'll go on to college or seek employment. The Junior Class of LCHS is now at that crossroad. With the aid of class officers: President Steve Chitwood, Vice President Alice Ramsey, Secretary Jeanette Virgil, and Treasurer Rick Molek juniors took first place in both the float and skit competition during Homecoming week.

Lynn Case was chosen to represent the class as Junior Attendant.

Sophs Learn Responsibility

The class worked hard with its advisors Mrs. Fulk, Mr. Gillette, and Mr. J. H. Morris on the Homecoming float, "Take a Giant Step," and on their Homecoming skit. Jean Pierson was chosen as the class representative on the Homecoming Court.

Sophomores anxiously awaited their turn for "behind the wheel" Drivers Ed.

They made great contributions to organizations such as Pep Club and the language clubs. Without their enthusiastic support these organizations could not be very active.

Limestone's Board of Education volunteer their time to serve the needs of the school district. They represent the community in settling school matters. The function of the Board is to determine the school budget, hire staff, and be responsible to the community, the school staff, and the students.

The seven members meet at least twice a month in regular or special meetings. For this they receive no monetary compensation.

Mr. Dean Briggs served as president the past school year. Mr. Kenneth Best was elected as president for the next school term. Joining next year's board is Mr. Vernon Woosley.

Administrators Help Students

Guidance Director
Mrs. Clara McCraith

Responsible for the many activities of the Guidance Department is Mrs. McCraith. In addition to doing her share of counseling as a department member, she sets up the master class schedule for the entire school and actively contributes to curriculum development and study committees.

If Limestone students have problems with scheduling, course requirements, or personal problems, they are fortunate because the counseling staff is here to help them.

Counselors help students find solutions to their problems by giving them good advice along with a friendly smile.

The counselors aid college-bound seniors by helping them with test applications, and college requirements. They have also helped by sponsoring the college breakfast and College Night.

Math Stimulates Progress

The advanced technology and complicated economics in today's society can best be understood by a student with a firm base in math. Math, of course, doesn't necessarily have to be dull. In a course such as probability, a student may figure out the probability of a jack being on top of a deck of cards.

Limestone offers probability, plus many other courses designed to help not only the future scientist but the future housewife as well.

The best way to learn a foreign language is to visit the country, but the second best way is to take a language course in school. Limestone's language teachers are very adept in their knowledge of their respective subjects. Mr. Jack Clinton for example, has spent time in Spain and other Spanish speaking countries perfecting his Spanish skills and passing this knowledge on to his students.

The study of language is also furthered by associating with the exchange students we have been fortunate to have. Limestone offers Spanish, French and German to interested pupils.

Mr. James Kovalik

Mr. Thomas shows Sue Weiman and Rick Mercer how the language lab console works.

Business Students Receive Training

Shirley Schwindenhammer enjoys her typing class.

Everyday new job openings demand the employment of bookkeepers, accountants, and secretaries. The range of courses covered by the business department is very wide. The subjects scale from bookkeeping to shorthand. Typing, which is necessary for almost any secretarial job, is taught. Machine operating is becoming more popular in the advancement of computors and their functions.

English Develops Ability

English students are taught all phases of the language; reading, writing, speaking, and listening. Through these doors students are given unlimited opportunities to broaden their knowledge.

This year the English department has made quite a few changes. Freshmen English remains the same as before, but English II, III, and IV are no longer offered. We now have semester courses in many areas.

Social Studies Teaches Understanding

Students of the Social Studies department at Limestone become acquainted with the elements of history, local, state, and international government, and world wide activity. In the field of humanitarian science, a person is taught his privileges, responsibilities, and obligations.

Much is learned about the human society and man's relations as a member of an organized community.

The community life is brought into consideration as being thought of as a system within which individual lives are shaped. We are taught to adapt to the needs and uses in a society.

The wide field of government ownership, managements, and control of the essential means of production is also brought into focus.

Congratulations!

After 12 years, you've got a good start on your education.

And you can plan on spending the rest of your life completing it. Because your education doesn't stop here—or with college, business school, or job training.

It continues . . . as life continues. The world will be your classroom, the future your curriculum. So keep up the good work. Our best wishes to you . . . as you continue your education.
